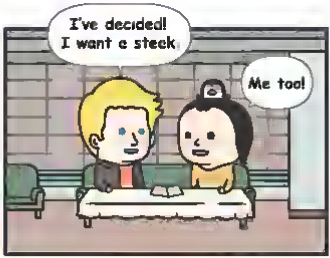
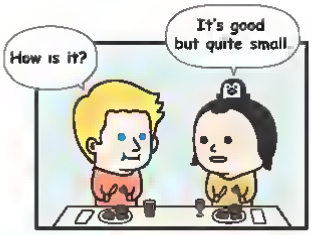
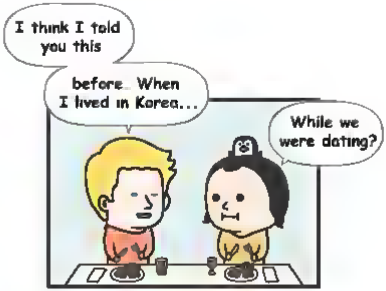
Miss Korean Restaurant



When we eat out.





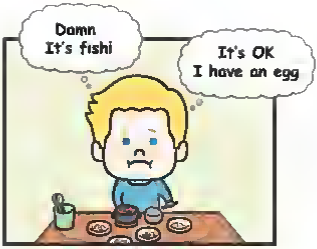
Sometimes Mev travels to his past.

...there were a few restaurants that I would go to each day.

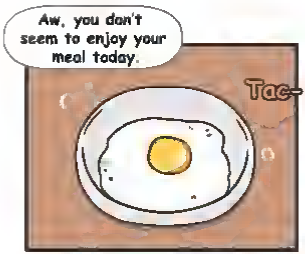
One af the restaurants was a small lacal cafeteria.

I didn't know what was what so I always just picked a name from the menu randomly.

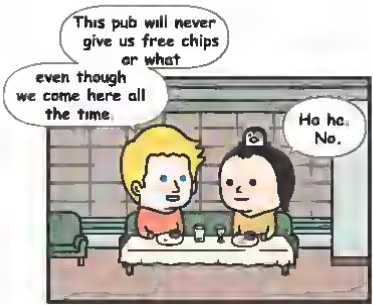
One of them was a fried egg.



Whenever I finished my egg, ..



...the lady gave me a new egg.
Always!



I think he sometimes misses the Korean restaurant's egg dish.

It's 8:30. I think the staff forgot to bring us the bill.
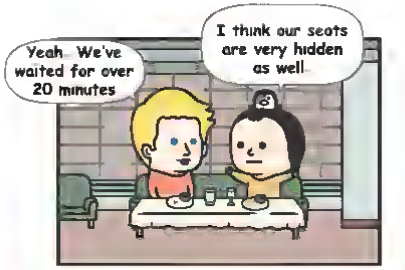
What time is it now?



I think our seats are very hidden as well.
Yeah. We've waited for over 20 minutes.

Do you know what I miss the most about Korean restaurants?
